Experience

As an event and sponsorship manager, I have twenty years experience managing sponsorship accounts and promotions in the Puget Sound region for Seafair a nationally recognized, multi-event regional festival and Super Jock 'n Jill, an industry leader in running-walking footwear and fitness apparel.

As Director for the Seafair Foundation, I established the foundation vision, developed fundraising strategies, created events, managed programs, researched and wrote grants. Prior to that, I developed fundraising strategies, web content and communication tools as Campaign Director for the Northwest Parks Foundation.

AndEvents

AndEvents is my new company created with my wife Laura combining over twenty-eight years of experience producing events for Super Jock 'n Jill, Seafair and the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. AndEvents reflects professionalism and leadership in successfully managing our client's programs. Our focus is on building strong relationships, utilizing our non-profit background, producing safe, well-organized events for participants, creating valuable sponsorship opportunities and over-delivering on our clients' goals.

Employment History

Seafair, Seattle Washington

Foundation Director, 2008-2009

- Develop initial foundation strategies, mission, vision, budgets and communication.
- Manage all foundation fundraising efforts including special events, donor development, gift solicitation, grant research and proposals raising over $22,000.
- Manage foundation programs that support post-secondary education, college-preparedness, community celebrations and cultural diversity.
- Collaborate with foundation board, committees and volunteer organizations supporting foundation programs.
- Met all goals of inaugural foundation year: increased awareness for cultural, educational and community programs, established new donors, created unique fundraising events.

Sponsorship Director, 2007-2008

- Manage three-person staff to maintain $2.2 million in sponsorship accounts and develop new revenue opportunities.
- Build and maintain relations with sponsorship clients and civic organizations in support of Seafair events.

NE, Redmond WA 98052 -

AndEvents is an event management and consulting company whose principals have achieved success and longevity in the event community by owning, managing and representing sponsorship interests in many of the area's premier fitness and non-profit events.

AndEvents goal is to integrate our knowledge of events with strong community partnerships and a comprehensive plan to maximize sponsorship value and participant experience.
